

Commitments to research projects 2021 – Danida priority countries (Window 1)

The thematic focus area of this Call is “Sustainable development and climate change”.

Project Coordinator	Applicant Institution	Project Title	Partner Countries	Conflicts of Interest among the FFU members
Max Nielsen	University of Copenhagen	ECOPRAWN - Climate-friendly and climate-resilient prawn farming in Bangladesh	Bangladesh
Lone Dirckinck-Holmfeld	Aalborg University	Unlocking the Potential of Green Charcoal Innovations to Mitigate Climate Change in Northern Uganda (NUGCI)	Uganda
Torben Birch-Thomsen	University of Copenhagen	The role of rural-urban linkages in enhancing climate resilience in rural Tanzania (RULCLI)	Tanzania
Louise Moe	Roskilde University	PASTORALIST CLIMATE CHANGE RESILIENCE IN SOMALILAND (PACCS)	Somalia
Karin Schiøler	University of Copenhagen	Building resilience to climate-sensitive mosquito-borne viral diseases; preventing epidemics through integrated mosquito control and sentinel surveillance in Zanzibar hospitals	Tanzania	Flemming Konradsen
Britt Pinkowski Tersbøl	University of Copenhagen	Gendered Encounters in Climate Change Adaptation	Tanzania	Flemming Konradsen
Irimi Angelidaki	Technical University of Denmark	AgroVal: Sustainable valorisation of agro-industrial residues through integration of food, bioproducts and bio-energy production	Ethiopia, Kenya, Tanzania

Project Coordinator	Applicant Institution	Project Title	Partner Countries	Conflicts of Interest among the FFU members
Yifeng Zhang	Technical University of Denmark	Carbon cApture for microbial Protein synthesis in Burkina Faso (CAP-BFA)	Burkina Faso
Goutam Sahana	Aarhus University	Sustainable and efficient insect production for livestock feed through selective breeding (FLYgene)	Kenya, Uganda
Mohammad Rana	Aalborg University	Circular Economy and Sustainable Development in Bangladeshi Garment Industry (CREST)	Bangladesh
Maj Munch Andersen	University of Copenhagen	Circular Retrofitting for Sustainable Industrialization (Gecko-CIR)	Kenya	